SAVING PLAN BEATEN.

Cut of $500,000 Opposed by "Interests" Put Back and $250,000 Added.

By Martin Green, Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The State of New York was about three-fourths represented in the House of Representatives yesterday and probably will continue to be represented to that extent until some legislation, for the enactment of which the business interests of the country have sent out a Macedonian cry, is out of the way.

Representatives of the State of New York played quite a prominent part in the proceedings of yesterday when a saving of about $500,000 recommended by the sub-committee on legislative, executive and judicial estimates of the Appropriations Committee was expeditiously wiped out and replaced by provision for an expenditure of $750,000, with a definite probability that the total will run to between $900,000 and $1,000,000 before the change from saving to spending on this particular item is completely accomplished.

This article might well be entitled "How It Is Done." To convey understanding to the reader it is necessary to go back a couple of weeks.

The Department of Commerce, when it submitted its estimates for next year, asked for $12,778,000. Included in this was the sum of $1,662,000 for the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, of which $337,000 was for salaries, $800,000 for promoting commerce, $300,000 for commercial attaches and $225,000 for expenses in promoting commerce.

SUB-COMMITTEE SLASHED WITH RUTHLESS HAND.

The sub-committee, of which Mr. Wood of Indiana is chairman and Mr. Sisson of Mississippi is the Democratic member, went through the estimate of the Department of Commerce like a tornado through a forest. It was especially destructive in the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce.

In the first place it threw out the estimate for $1,662,000; refused to consider it at all. It took the appropriation for the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce for this year ($600,000) as a working basis, and after exhaustive examinations and investigations cut it down to $480,000. In other words the sub-committee, obeying the necessity for rigid economy, allowed the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce $480,000 for next year, a saving of $180,000 direct and of about $70,000 from indirect sources.

To do this the sub-committee practically wiped out the commercial attaches and commercial agents of the Bureau abroad and all the machinery abroad and at home, with an apparent saving of $500,000 toward the $2,500,000,000 which must be saved if the deficit of the country is not to grow. The sub-committee reported to the House two weeks ago.

The explanation for doing away with the machinery of the Foreign and Domestic Bureau abroad was that the State Department, through its consular officers, looks after the interests of American business in every part of the world, and the work of the agents of the Department of Commerce, who have grown in number and in salary drawing ability with

DETECTIVE GUNSON INDICTED; CHARGE OF BRIBERY MADE

Accused of Taking $5,000 From Woman and Shielding Her—Bench Warrant Issued.

John J. Gunson, a detective on the staff of Inspector Henry of the Fourth District, was indicted to-day on charges of extortion and bribery. Judge Malone of General Sessions issued a bench warrant for his arrest.

The indictment was found after the Grand Jury had listened to the story by Rebecca Meloyado, Stella Young and Rose Gonzales, better known as "Spanish Rose."

The women, testified under subpoenas issued by District Attorney Swann on evidence obtained by Assistant District Attorney James E. Smith, who has been at work on the case for some months.

The Meloyado woman said she has known Gunson for three years, and that during that time she had lived with him in an apartment in West 90th Street, and had given him various sums of money, amounting in all to approximately $5,000, besides suits of clothing and presents of different sorts.

She also declared she had acted as a "rounder-up" of women of the underworld who had failed to meet the demands made upon them by the police detectives.

The indictment charges Gunson with having received from the Meloyado woman $50 in Oct. 19, 1917, while in their apartment. Stella Young is alleged to have been present at the time the money was passed. She was summoned as a corroborating witness.

Rebecca Meloyado said Gunson "and other detectives on Inspector Henry's staff" had hounded women of the streets who attempted to reform and get jobs.

She declared that once she had broken away from Gunson and had obtained work as a hairdresser, but that Gunson found her and forced her to return. She added that she was in the habit of meeting the detective each night in a restaurant in West 41st Street and there "splitting fifty-fifty" with him the money she had received.

Rosa Gonzales told the Grand Jury she had been arrested ten times in the last two years and that each time she had been told by detectives that if she would engage a certain lawyer, the arresting officer would change his testimony so that the Magistrate in the Night Court would have to discharge her. She showed to the Grand Jury ten certificates of discharge from the Night Court in the period she mentioned. In each case, she asserted, she had paid from $300 to $500 to the same lawyer.

Police Commissioner Enright recently cleared Gunson of charges brought against him in connection with the arrest and subsequent discharge of two young women.

STRAUSS QUITS BOARD.

Vice-Governor of Federal Reserve Tenders His Resignation.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Albert Strauss, of New York, vice governor of the Federal Reserve Board, to-day tendered his resignation to President Wilson. It was announced at the White House.

Friends of Strauss said he took the position as a war measure and that he now is resigning to go back to his personal affairs.

ST. PAUL DISABLED ON HER FIRST TRIP SINCE SINKING HERE

Liner Races for Halifax, Owing to Boiler Trouble 450 Miles at Sea.

HAS 625 PASSENGERS.

Vessel Which Turned Over in North River Had Just Been Repaired.

The St. Paul, of the American line, on her first voyage for a year and a half, following her turning over at her North River pier while acting as a war transport, reported from 450 miles southeast of Halifax to-day that she was partly disabled by boiler trouble and was making for Halifax for repairs.

The news came in a radio from Capt. A. R. Mills of the St. Paul to the offices of the International Mercantile Marine at No. 11 Broadway, as follows:

"Owing trouble boiler tubes proceeding Halifax, expect arrive Friday morning Position 39.40 N.; 59.35 W."

The New York office at once sent orders to Montreal that the Leyland liner Canada should be held back to take passengers of the St. Paul. The Cedric of the White Star Line has been ordered to put into Halifax Monday morning on her way to Europe to take any passengers of the St. Paul who cannot get accommodations on the Canada.

The St. Paul sailed for Plymouth, Cherbourg and Southampton last Saturday morning with 625 passengers. Among them were Dr. Eusebia Ayola, Paraguayan delegate to the Pan American Financial Conference at Washington, and William C. Reick of the Sun and New York Herald, with his two daughters.

The St. Paul's chapter of accidents began more than twenty years ago when she was stranded off the Jersey coast near Long Branch, and was salvaged after many days of peril.

ARNSTEIN "WITHIN TEN HOURS OF CITY"

Will Surrender To-Morrow if Bail Can Be Arranged, Declares Flick.

Julius W. (Nicky) Arnstein will surrender to the authorities to-morrow provided his wife, Pamela Flick, Broadway actress, is able to arrange with theatrical friends for indemnifying the bonding company for the $100,000 bail which the District Attorney is demanding.

William J. Fallon, attorney for Arnstein, made this statement just before entering the office of Assistant District Attorney Dooling this afternoon.

"I have heard all sorts of stories regarding my client's connection with the bond robbery plot," said Fallon, "but I am willing to bet you right now that not one of them will stand up under investigation. He is being confused with some one else."

Fallon added that Arnstein is "now less than ten hours away from New York."

12-CENT BREAD ON MARKET SOON

Master Bakers Say Increase Is Due to $1 a Day Pay Raise for Bakers.

Twelve cent bread will make its appearance immediately in the shops controlled by the Master Bakers of Manhattan, an organization with about 400 members, it was announced to-day.

Rolls will be four for a nickel, and doughnuts and fancy cakes will follow suit in the upward price movement, according to Adam Metz, President of the organization.

The increase is due to the demand of bakers and their helpers for a boost in pay of $1 a day. Mr. Metz said. This will bring the baker's pay to $3 a day and will make the helpers' minimum $2.50.

This organization does not include the big commercial bakers, but these will have to purchase their breads at the new prices from sixteen bakers to fourteen coppers, Mr. Metz declared.

SWEET SEEKS WAY TO SIDETRACK THE DRY FUND INQUIRY

Republican Leaders Get Back to Lack of Appropriation Dodge.

SENATE AGAINST IT.

But Wet Forces Insist Upon Inquiry to Begin in Two Weeks.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 3.—Development which may stave off the probe of the Anti-Saloon League appeared to-day.

After examining the legislative law, the leaders, headed by Speaker Sweet, concluded a concurrent resolution would be necessary to furnish the finances for the Judiciary Committee. Should the Senate refuse to concur in the appropriation, the Assembly would be powerless to furnish the money.

To offset this supporters of the probe are seeking some way in which to conduct it whereby no expenditures would be required, but no definite plan has been evolved.

It developed to-day that the investigation cannot begin for two weeks.

The Senate to-day refused to join the Assembly in its probe, when a resolution by Senator Cottino to this effect was sent to the Judiciary Committee. Cottino called for a slow roll call in an endeavor to pass the resolution, but was defeated 26 to 15.

Cottino's resolution called for the Senate Judiciary Committee to join immediately with the similar Assembly Committee in its investigation of the Anti-Saloon League, which he characterized as undemocratic, hypocritical and autocratic in its methods.

The majority and minority leaders expressed opposition to the adoption of the measure, primarily on the ground that the Senate investigation would be unnecessary in view of the fact that the Assembly apparently intended to go ahead with the investigation.

During the course of debate on the resolution, Senator Kaplan announced he is preparing a local option bill, which will have for its main purpose conferring on various municipalities the power to determine what constitutes an intoxicating beverage.

The Judiciary Committee met in executive session to-day to examine the evidence in the possession of Assemblyman Louis Cuvillier, a member of the committee, and to fix the date for beginning the investigation into the funds and political activities of the Anti-Saloon League and William H. Anderson, its State Superintendent.

The committee also will decide what counsel will represent it, and whether the League will be allowed legal representation.

It is believed the Attorney General's office will be called on to furnish legal assistance to the committee, and that if the League is allowed counsel the organization will select Robert G. Davey, its counsel.

The committee will probably meet later this week to draw up the procedure to be followed in the investigation.

MARY PICKFORD DIVORCED.

Is Freed from Owen Moore on Grounds of Desertion.

NEW YORK, March 3.—Mary Pickford, motion picture star, has been granted a divorce from Owen Moore at Mireton, a small town near Carson City, on grounds of desertion. She has been in the Campbell ranch at Geneva, nearly since Feb. 19. She was accompanied to the court room by her mother, Mrs. Smith, and she wept freely while testifying.

Moore was not in court, though he was at Mireton at lunch on Monday.
